

Wine Tasting Notes - White Wines

N.V. Sparkling White

A soft, lively non-vintage white with zesty fruit salad characters and a creamy finish

$18 per bottle

2008 Jacaranda Semillon Sauvignon Blanc

This popular blend features a bouquet of fresh cut grass with capsicum and green apple. The palette is light and quick with refreshing acidity from Sauvignon Blanc and the traditional mouth feel of Semillon.

$18 per bottle

2009 Chardonnay

Seriously light oak with a full dry flavour. An easy drinking, ultra-modern style wine. Made in the new vogue style, wild yeasts caused fermentation, very miniscule oak, fine and high acid, 2-5 years.

$18 per bottle

N.V Verdelho Chardonnay

Unwooded fruity bland, off-dry. A full-flavoured easy drinking wine. Blended from Verdelho 73%, chardonnay 27%, and mainly 2009 vintage. Lots of aromatic Verdelho character plus dryness.

$18 per bottle

2009 Poinciana Sparkling Shiraz Rosé

100% Estate Grown, this Rosé was produced using very traditional Champagne methods. Its funky nose shows musk and floral characters and the palette follows with crisp acidity, hints of spice and red fruit, all under a layer of creamy fizz.

$25 per bottle

N.V. Jacaranda Rosé

Lightly crushed on skins and then pressed, Jacaranda Rosé shows good palate weight and persistence, red berries freshness and lifted sweet pepper characters.

$22 per bottle

Wine Tasting Notes - Red Wines

N.V. Sparkling Red

A non-vintage blend of red varieties carefully aged in American Oak and full of attractive dark cherry flavours. Great with smoked meats and game.

$18 per bottle

N.V. Jacaranda Shiraz Merlot

An interesting blend of vintages and varieties showing depth of flavour and fresh berry fruits with well balanced sweetness and persistence.

Enjoy it well chilled with your next BBQ.

$18 per bottle

2005 Poinciana Merlot

Soft Mocha and dark cherries on the nose with earthy plum and young flowers on the palate. A very well balanced wine. Best at 18-21 degrees.

$24 per bottle

2006 Poinciana Cabernet Sauvignon

Lifted black currant and musk bouquet with subtle licorice and tobacco characters on the palate. A well balanced wine with a grippy finish. Best at 18-21 degrees.

$26 per bottle

2005 Poinciana Shiraz Viognier

Lavender and smokey plum bouquet with a medium bodied well balanced and fleshy palate. This blend has a rewarding wild berry and soft white pepper finish.

Best at 18-21 degrees

$26 per bottle

Red Belly Gold Botrytis

Our lovely rich sticky is a blend of Chardonnay and Semillon effected by 'Noble Rot'.

A heady bouquet of dried apricot and pears is followed by a silky palette of honeyed nuts and fine acid.

$22 per bottle

Red Belly Black Tawny

Blended from several grape varieties & vintages back to 1999 and aged in old oak barrels. This tawny exhibits good rancio characters and is fortified with quality mature brandy to complement the depth of flavour and create a unique sweetness.
